Forecast for Saturday 16 Jan 2021

Weather: Southerly winds will veer westerly through morning to bring frequent and often heavy snow showers (rain and hail below 800m, falling 400m by evening), these merging together at times. Some limited brightness in between. The odd rumble of thunder can't be ruled out.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: 20% at best with any breaks fleeting and unreliable.

Visibility: With the main cloud base around 500-700m, visibility will be often as little as a few hundred metres. Whiteout conditions also a frequent occurrence. Visibility much improved on lower slopes away from showers.
